

Promises of God

17. Guidance

Psalm 32:8 "I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye."

Meaning: To guide someone with your eyes he must be looking at you. The closer we are to God, the easier it is for Him to guide us. He can push or pull us, but He would rather guide us. We should be like sheep following the shepherd (Psalm 23:1-3). As a Christian, God has a particular way for us to go, and we need His guidance to find it.

Application: God will guide us through the Holy Spirit, the Word of God, the man of God, parents, and godly Christians. We should ask daily as David did, "for thy name's sake lead me, and guide me" (Psalm 31:3). Just as a parent has direction for his child, and a coach for his team, so our Heavenly Father has direction for His children. He will guide us if we will but ask, and follow.

Other Verses to Study: Psalm 25:9; 37:23; 73:24; 119:24, 105; Proverbs 6:22, 23; John 16:13

1. What must you do to be guided by someone's eyes?

2. What is one way that God will guide us?

3. What must we do for God to guide us?

"No man, who acts honestly up to the light he has, will be left in the dark."
